

it looks like I am
playing but...

I am developing social skills,
emotional skills,
independence, oral language, imagination and responsibility. I may use these skills as a mother, father, safety officer, or politician some day.

It looks like we are playing but....

I am developing motor skills, math concepts (number, size, shape, space), oral language, social skills, eye hand coordination, and my imagination. I may be a builder or an architect one day.

playing but...

I am developing my creativity, small motor skills, problem solving, cooperation, independence and responsibility. I may use these skills to become an artist, illustrator, or designer some day.

playing but...

I am developing my small muscles, eye hand coordination, attention span, social skills, and concepts about size, shape and color pattern. I might use these skills as a chef or dentist one day.
